

Data Governance and Retention Framework

Email Retention and Archiving

To comply with legal and regulatory standards, specific data must be retained for set periods. Customer emails must be retained for 7 years per regulatory requirements. After 7 years, they are automatically purged from the archive system. Do not manually delete customer communications.