

Information Technology Acceptable Use Policy

Approved Software

Employees are strictly prohibited from installing unauthorized software on corporate devices. Only software on the approved software list (ASL) maintained by IT may be installed. Requests for new software must go through the IT helpdesk portal and require manager approval.