

Corporate Data Security Policy

Incident Reporting Procedures

Data security is the responsibility of all employees. Security incidents must be reported to security@company.com within 24 hours of detection. Include incident type, affected systems, and estimated impact in your report. Failure to report may result in disciplinary action.